

The State of Indiana has a good law regarding telemarketing calls. Since it went to affect the amount of telemarketing is almost nil. At this point I would need to know more about the Federal Law proposed to override the States law.